About the ESV Bible

Premise
The ESV® (English Standard Version®) Bible is based on the premise that the words of the Bible are the words of God. And as Jesus said, “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God” (Matthew 4:4).

A Word-for-Word Translation
With this foundational premise in mind, the ESV Bible follows word-for-word (or essentially literal) translation principles. As a word-for-word Bible translation, the ESV seeks to express the deepest possible nuance of meaning in the original Greek and Hebrew words of the Bible—and thus to bring the reader as close as possible to the timeless truth, beauty, and depth of meaning of the original Greek and Hebrew.

Foundational Words
The ESV likewise retains the foundational words of biblical Christian teaching—essential words such as grace, mercy, justification, sanctification, and salvation—words that express the heart of the gospel and the central truths of the church.

The ESV thus carries forward the historic stream of essentially literal Bible translation, as exemplified so beautifully in the King James Version and its legacy, which is represented by several other essentially literal Bible translations published during the last 400 years.

Ideally Suited for Personal Reading and In-Depth Study
In short, the ESV Bible is ideally suited for both devotional reading and in-depth study—to read and reflect, to study and memorize, for worship and preaching, for personal reading and family devotions, as a lifelong treasure for all who love God’s Word.

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. 2 The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the deep. 3 And God said, “Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” 4 And God made an expanse in the midst of the waters, and it separated the waters from the waters. And God called the expanse Heaven. 5 And there was evening, and there was morning; the second day. 6 And God said, “Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed, according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit, according to the kind of their fruits.” And God created according to their kinds. 7 And God saw that it was good. 8 And there was evening, and there was morning; the third day. 9 And God said, “Let the waters be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. 10 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of the waters he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. 11 And God said, “Let the earth bring forth vegetation, plants yielding seed according to their own kinds, and trees bearing fruit, according to the kind of their fruits.” And God created according to their kinds. 12 And God saw that it was good. 13 And there was evening, and there was morning; the fourth day. 14 And God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years. 15 And let them be lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth.” And it was so. 16 And God made two great lights— the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. 17 And God set them in the expanse of the heavens to govern the day and the night and the seasons and the years. 18 And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens.” 19 And God created great swarms of living creatures and flew birds above the earth across the expanse of the heavens. 20 And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: cattle and creeping things and animals of the earth according to their kinds.” And it was so. 21 And God made the beasts of the earth according to their kinds and the cattle according to their kinds and everything that creeps on the ground according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. 22 And God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.” And they made man in their image, after their likeness. 23 Male and female he created them. 24 And God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.” 25 And God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is on the face of all the earth and every tree with fruit for food. It is yours and you shall eat. 26 In the sweat of your face you shall eat bread till you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. You are dust, and to dust you shall return.”
UNFOLDING GRACE

The Bible is more than just a book about events in history; it’s a unified story. In Unfolding Grace, readers will discover that unifying story of Scripture from cover to cover through 40 Scripture readings. Each passage, coupled with newly written introductions, will enable readers to follow God’s redemptive plan as it develops through the Bible. Featuring beautiful illustrations by Peter Voth on high-quality book paper, Unfolding Grace has the feel of a novel—deepening the reader’s engagement with each passage, while maintaining the depth of a biblical resource, making it ideal for anyone unfamiliar with the storyline of grace that flows through the pages of Scripture.

ABRAHAM AND THE PROMISE OF ISAAC

Abraham and his large household traveled from Ur to Canaan, then to Egypt, and then back to Canaan—the land of God’s promise. By now Abraham was aging and his wife was barren. How will God fulfill his promises to give them that land, to give them descendants, and to bless the world through them? Although it looks like God’s plan faces an insurmountable obstacle, God calls Abraham and Sarah to trust him. He will give them a son, Isaac, and through him the blessing to the nations will come.

These chapters highlight a pattern in the Bible’s story: God is a God of promise, and his people are men and women who trust him and his promises.

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was light.

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

1 All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made.

2 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

3 He was in the beginning with God.

4 All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made.

5 The Word became flesh and dwelt among us,

6 and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son of the Father,

7 full of grace and truth.

8 John testified about him, and cried out, saying, “He is the Lamb of God!”

9 The firstborn of every family had been sacrificed,

10 but for your salvation they were offered.

11 We have been forsaken by the Father,

12 but he was our salvation.

13 And we have been offered,

14 but for your salvation they were offered.

15 We have been offered,

16 but for your salvation they were offered.

The Voice of One Crying Out in the Wilderness

The Testimony of John the Baptist

VOICE OF ONE CRYING OUT IN THE WILDERNESS, 'MAKE STRAIGHT THE WAY OF THE LORD,' AS THE PROPHET ISAIAH SAID. 35

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

ESV PEW BIBLE

The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there were six stone water jars in the temple, where the Jews put the offerings. 3 Jesus said to his disciples, "Fill the jars with water." 4 They filled them to the brim, 5 and he said, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." 6 The disciples did as he said and brought the water to the master of the feast, and he tasted it and said, "It is good water." Then he called the master of the feast, "Where did you get this water?" 7 The master of the feast knew who it was, but the disciples did not. 8 Jesus said to the disciples, "This is he who spoke to me, saying, ‘In me you will have water’; he who said, ‘There is no water in this place’—the words of the one who spoke to him were Spirit and life." 9 The servants of the feast then directed the disciples to give the water to the guests who were there, so they took it.

ESV CHURCH BIBLE

In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 5 (John 3:3-5)
They asked him, “Then why are you baptizing, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?” John answered, “I baptize with water, but among you stands one you do not know. 31 It is he who comes after me, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie.”}

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
ESV NEW CHRISTIAN’S BIBLE
The Bible can be daunting to a new believer. The ESV New Christian’s Bible is a unique edition created specifically to help Christians begin to navigate God’s word. Four brief articles—What Is the Bible? "How to Read the Bible," "Where Do I Start?" and "Further Helps"—serve as an accessible on-ramp to engaging with God’s word, and 40 sidebars alongside key passages explain foundational building blocks of the Christian life. This affordable, thoughtful edition is a meaningful gift or purchase for those who have just become Christians.
ESV PULPIT BIBLE

The ESV Pulpit Bible is a specialty edition beautifully suited for use in pulpits, lecterns, libraries, homes, or anywhere God’s word is esteemed. Its highly readable type is ideal for public reading and congregational worship, and the finely crafted, reinforced leather cover will retain its beauty for years to come.

ESV STORY OF REDEMPTION BIBLE
A Journey through the Unfolding Promises of God

The Bible is the epic story of the unfolding plan of God over the course of the history of the world. The ESV Story of Redemption Bible: A Journey through the Unfolding Promises of God leads readers on a journey through this storyline from start to finish, with 897 notes of conversational commentary written by pastor Greg Gilbert inspersed throughout the full ESV text. With the aim of encouraging interaction and contemplation passage by passage, Gilbert explains how every part of Scripture fits together and is ultimately centered on Christ. Particularly suitable to those who are new to the Bible but rich with insights for even the most seasoned Bible reader, the ESV Story of Redemption Bible will draw readers in as they see their place in the greatest story ever told.

John 1:1

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything that was made. *In him was life, and the life was the light of men. *The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. *These opening verses of John’s Gospel are undoubtedly some of the most profound in all of Scripture. It only becomes clear in verse 14 exactly what (or actually, who) John is referring to as “the Word.” But once we understand that this is Jesus, we see immediately how much John accomplishes in the space of just a few words. He declares Jesus’ divinity, begins to unfold the doctrine of salvation, and lays the foundation for the rest of John’s gospel.
ESV LITERARY STUDY BIBLE

DESCRIPTION

Journaling

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.” From Philippi near Mount Olympus and Peter—Philip found Nathanael and said to him, “We have found him of whom Moses in the Law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.” Nathanael said to him, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.” Nathanael said to him, “Please come and see a man who has been described as the ‘Rabbi’—one who is known.” Philip said to him, “Come and see.” Nathanael said to him, “Will you believe before you see and hear?” Philip said to him, “Yes, because of what you have said about him.” Nathanael heard Philip’s words and was his witness. Jesus saw Nathanael coming and said to Philip, “Here is a man who is to be my disbeliever.” Philip said to him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!” Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, anyone who hears my word and believes in him who sent me has eternal life, and shall not come into condemnation, but has passed from death to life.” He said to him, “How do you know me?” He answered him, “Who told you that I am the Messiah?” Nathanael answered him, “Tabor is a place of little about us.” Philip said to him, “You have been described as one whom people look to as a prophet.” Nathanael answered him, “I believe that Jesus is the Son of God!” Philip said to him, “Come and see.” Nathanael heard Philip’s words and was a witness. ESV Literary Study Bible

Sample Spread

The ESV Literary Study Bible offers a sample spread for readers to experience the unique format and design firsthand. This spread includes a page from the book of John, showcasing the literary forms and features that enhance the reader’s understanding of the biblical text.
ESV ARCHAEOLOGY STUDY BIBLE

The ESV Archaeology Study Bible roots the biblical text in its historical and cultural context, offering readers a framework for better understanding the people, places, and events recorded in Scripture. With editorial oversight from Dr. John Currid (PhD, University of Chicago) and Dr. David Chapman (PhD, University of Cambridge), as well as contributions from a team of field-trained archaeologists, the ESV Archaeology Study Bible assembles a range of modern scholarship—pairing the biblical text with helpful articles, maps, photographs, and drawings. Additional charts, sidebars, and notes add detail and bring life to the ancient texts, helping readers situate them in their historical context while recognizing the truth that the eternal God became flesh and entered human history at a specific time and in a specific place.

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4 Inhim was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to testify of the Light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the Light, but was sent to bear witness of the Light. 9 The true Light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not. 11 He came to his own, and his own received him not. 12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: 13 Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, (and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son of the Father,) full of grace and truth. 15 John bore witness about him, and cried out, and said, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me is preferred before me, because he was before me.’ ” 16 And of his fullness we have all received, grace for grace. 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No man has seen God at any time; the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.”
The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

The true light, which gives light to every man...
So they said to him, "Who are you? We need to give answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

He said, "I am not the Christ.

Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

"Are you baptizing, if you are neither the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

"I baptize with water," answered them, "but one who comes after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."

And he answered, "No."

So they said to him, "Who are you? We need to give answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as the prophet Isaiah said."

"Now they had been sent from the Pharisees."

They asked him, "Then you are baptizing, if you are neither..."

ESV SINGLE COLUMN LEGACY BIBLE

The Heirloom editions feature high-quality materials, including a goatskin cover, art gilding, high-quality paper, and more. For more information about these editions and other Premium Bibles, see page 159.

ESV BIBLE WITH CREEDS AND CONFESSIONS

Creeds and confessions have been used throughout Christian history to summarize the Bible's teaching, distilling the key truths of Scripture into concise and succinct propositions. The ESV Bible with Creeds and Confessions contains 13 important creeds and confessions from church history placed after the complete ESV text, including the Apostles' Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Heidelberg Catechism. Introductions written by theologian Chad Van Dinhorn explain the history and original purpose of each, helping modern Christians see how these historic documents were designed to faithfully teach the truths of Scripture—truths aimed at shaping and motivating the lives of all who follow Christ.

The Premium edition features high-quality materials, including a gooskin cover, art gilding, high-quality paper, and more. For more information about this edition and other Premium Bibles, see page 159.

John answered them, "I baptize with water. But among you stands one you do not know, whom the Father sent to the world! I said to you, ‘I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and he said to me, ‘This is my Son, my Chosen One.’ You yourselves have seen this. Indeed, I tell you, no greater sign than this will you receive. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and will guide you into all truth. The Father will show you things to come. But I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away. If I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will speak on his own authority, but when he speaks on mine, he will speak their own words, and the Counselor will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and make it known to you. All that the Father has is mine. This is why I said that he will take what is mine and make it known to you. He will glorify me, for he will receive of what is mine and make it known to you. As the Father loves me, so I love you. Therefore there is no greater love than to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. Now this I command you: Do not sin; and the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and will guide you into all truth. The Father will show you things to come. But I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away. Now this I command you: Do not sin; and if you walk in my ways, I will make you perfect. I have told you these things so that when the time comes you may remember them and do them. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. The Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and will guide you into all truth. The Father will show you things to come. But I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away. If I do not go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In the beginning was the Word, the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 5 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world was not received him. 6 So faith came through the Word to every one who believed. 7 Darkness has not overcome it. 8 He shall enlighten many nations. 9 And this is the testimony of JOHN. 10 He was not the light, but came to witness about the light. 11 And the testimony of JOHN was this: He received witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 12 He was in the world, and the light was not the world. 13 He came in the form of a man, and the light was through him. 14 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 15 He shall be a light to the Gentiles. 16 And John stood on the banks of Jordan, baptizing and confessing, saying, ‘Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. 17 Behold the Man who comes after me, because he ranks before me, because he was before me.’ 18 But they asked him, “What do you say about this man?” He said, “I am baptizing with the baptism of repentance.” 19 He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, saying, “I am not the Christ, but I am sent to baptize with the Holy Spirit. 20 And he said to him, “Where are you from?” He said, “I am from Galilee.” He asked him, “Why do you baptize?” He said, “Because John said, ‘Behold the Lamb of God, who removes the sin of the world. 21 Behold the Man who comes after me, because he ranks before me, because he was before me.’ 22 The next day, he saw Jesus coming to him and said, “Behold the Lamb of God, who removes the sin of the world. 23 Behold the Man who comes after me, because he ranks before me, because he was before me.’ 24 So they came and saw where he was. 25 And they asked the Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?” He said, “I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Make straight the way of the Lord.’ 26 For this Man was the One spoken of by Isaiah the prophet when he said, ‘Behold, a Virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and He shall be called, the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give to Him the throne of His father David. 27 He shall rule over the House of Jacob forever, and of His Kingdom there shall be no end.’” 28 They asked him, “What do you say about this man?” He said, “Behold the Man who comes after me. I am not worthy to unloose the latch-string of His sandals.” 29 They asked him, “Where are you from?” He said, “I am from Galilee.” He asked him, “Why do you baptize?” He said, “Doubtless, if you received John’s baptism you would have believed in John. 30 John said of me, ‘I am not worthy to unloose the latch-string of His sandals.’ But I say to you, ‘The One who sends me to baptize is greater than I am. 31 Elders of Israel, what do you think about John? If he was a man, then you would not have sent him. 32 They asked him, “What do you say?” He said, “I am not the Christ, but I am the one who was sent to prepare the way of the Christ. 33 He comes after me, and I am not worthy to unloose the latch-string of His sandals. 34 So it is now with the One who is coming after me; He is rising up before me. He is the One of whom I said, ‘After me is come the Man who is before me.’” 35 They asked him, “What do you say about this man?” He said, “I am not the Christ, but I am the one who is sent to prepare the way of the Christ.” 36 The baptism of John was baptism with repentance, but the baptism of the Christ is baptism with the Holy Spirit, because John baptized with repentance, but Christ did not baptize with the Holy Spirit until after He was made visible to them. 37 He said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? I say to you, ‘You will see greater things than this.’ 38 And the children of Jerusalem spoke among themselves, “What is this?” 39 They said to their father, “Look, the water is bitter. Do you know why?” 40 He said to them, “My son, you will see greater things than this.” 41 He said to the multitudes who came, “You will see greater things than this.” 42 The Kingdom of heaven is like a man who was a farmer. He went out to sow seed. 43 And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside, and the birds came and ate it up. 44 And some fell on stony ground where it did not have much earth, and right away it sprouted, because it did not have depth of earth. 45 But when sun was up, it was scorched and it withered because it did not have root. 46 And some seed fell among thorns, and they grew up together with it. 47 And the cares of the world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of the flesh, choked it, and it withered. 48 And some seed fell on good soil, and it brought forth fruit, some a hundred fold, and some sixty fold, and some thirty fold. 49 He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

"Yet the world did not know him. He came as the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

John answered, "I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I have come baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel." And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

John answered, "I am the voice of one crying out, 'In the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord,' who is coming after me, the mightier one, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie." I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me. The strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie.'"

When John saw Jesus coming toward him, he said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who removes the sin of the world!"

"Behold," they said to one another, "here is the prophet about whom John said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me.'"

"Some said, 'He is Elijah.' Others said, 'He is a prophet.' But John replied, 'Neither I nor anyone else knows who he is. But he who sent me to baptize with water told me, `After me you will see the One who is going before you, whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.' Therefore when I heard the sound of the thunder, when I saw the dove coming down from heaven and remaining on him, I declare to you that this is the One whom God has approved.

"I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I have come baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel. And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. And I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water told me, `You will see the Spirit descending like a dove, it will rest on him; and I myself did not know him;' but he who sent me to baptize with water, he will send the Holy Spirit, whom I do not know.'"

The Word became flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. 6 The true light, which gives light to everyone who believes in his name, was in the world, and the world did not comprehend it. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light. 8 But to all who did receive him, those who believe in his name, he gave the right to become children of God; the only Son, the only God. 9 All flesh that is not from the Spirit is dead, because the Spirit is life. 10 In this was the love of God manifested among us, that God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. 11 He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world did not know him. 12 He came as a light to bring to those living in darkness and those living in shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace. 13 "The true light that gives light to everyone who believes in his name"—he was not from the Spirit, but was manifested by the Father, and by the Father was manifested. 14 And John bore witness: “I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. 15 ‘This is he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me,’ 16 because he was before me.’ ” 17 And they asked him, “Who are you? We need to know who you are.” 18 He confessed, “I am not the Messiah (John bore witness about him, yet the world did not know him). 19 He has made him known to me. 20 And I myself did not know him, but I received the task to baptize him. 21 This was the one who was speaking of him as he said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks before me,’ 22 who was not from the Father, but was manifested by the Father. 23 And I was not worthy to do as it is but to bear witness about him, that he is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.” 24 These things took place at Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing. 25 Now the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit like a dove descending and remaining on him. 26 And John said, “I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. 27 This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks before me,’ 28 who was not from the Father, but was manifested by the Father. 29 He was filled with the Holy Spirit and with wisdom. And the grace of God was upon him. 30 TheTestimony of John the Baptist

The Testimony of John the Baptist

And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

And he confessed, and did not deny; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not, nor are you John the Baptist.”

He said, “I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord, as was said by the prophet Isaiah.”

Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see:

1. The testimony of John the Baptist

And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

And he confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, I am not the Christ.

And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not, nor are you John the Baptist.”

He said, “I am the voice of one calling in the wilderness, make straight the way of the Lord, as was said by the prophet Isaiah.”

Jesus answered them, “Go and tell John what you hear and see:

2. The Creation of Adam and Eve

The Creation of Adam and Eve

God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.”

Then God said, “Let us make the beast of the field and the fowl of the air and all that creeps along the earth, and make every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.”

Thus God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.”

And God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And he created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him.

And God blessed them, and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over every living creature that is on the earth.”

So it was, as the days of the creation of the heavens and the earth were gone by, that the earth was a waste and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.

And God said, “Let there be light.” And there was light.

And God saw that the light was good. And God separated the light from the darkness.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And it was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from one another.”

And God made the firmament, and separated the waters that were under the firmament from the waters that were above the firmament; and it was so.

And God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, “Let the waters under the heaven be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear.”

And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering of the waters he called Seas. And God saw that it was good.

And God said, “Let the earth bring forth plants, seed yielding grain, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with the seed in them, on the earth.” And it was so.

And God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because on it God rested from all the work of creation that he had done.

And it is a sign between me and the people of Israel forever: for in six days the Lord made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he rested and sanctified it.

And God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness.”

And God said, “Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And he created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him.

And God blessed them, and said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over every living creature that is on the earth.”

And God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them that were in the sky, and all the trees of the earth, and all the fruit of the earth, and all that was in the earth, and all the spirits that move in the earth.

And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it God rested from all the work of creation that he had done.

ESV NEW TESTAMENT

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,

The Testimony of John the Baptist

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the presence of God, and the Word was God. through him, and was through him. Before anything was created, was already there, and all things were created through him. He was not created; he was always with God. Jesus said to his disciples, "I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you will have the light of life."

The wedding at Cana

Jesus turned and saw them. "What do you say about yourself?" he asked them. They said, "We do not know what to say." Then Jesus said to them, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." And he began to teach them about the Parable of the Sower. He said, "A man went out to sow some seed in his field. As he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and ate it up. Some seed fell on rocky ground, and when the sun came out, it burned it up. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked the seed. But some seed fell on good soil, and it brought forth a crop, some forty bushels, some sixty bushels."

Jesus said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" The two disciples who heard him followed him. "What are you looking for?" they asked him. "I am the one you are looking for," Jesus said to them. "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed there with him that day. But when they were about to leave, Simon Peter said to him, "Tell us where you are staying, and we will go with you." Jesus said, "Are you following me because you have seen me doing miracles? I tell you, if you do not see miracles, you will never believe. But even if you do see miracles, you will not believe. For this reason I have told you, I am the Son of God. I am the only way to heaven. No one goes to heaven except through me."

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming to the world, and the world was made through him. But the world did not know him, and he was not loved by the world. He came to his own, but his own did not receive him. He gave them the right to eternal life. Those who received him put their trust in his name. He gave them the right to eternal life. Those who received him put their trust in his name. He gave them the right to eternal life.

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming to the world, and the world was made through him. But the world did not know him, and he was not loved by the world. He came to his own, but his own did not receive him. He gave them the right to eternal life. Those who received him put their trust in his name. He gave them the right to eternal life. Those who received him put their trust in his name. He gave them the right to eternal life.
“And he said to him, ‘You are Simon the son of Joseph; you shall be called Peter. For you have been caught by Satan’s snare; but after that you will be caught up into heaven.’ And he said to him, ‘Let it be so, Lord.’ Then Jesus said to him, ‘I assure you, today you will not die, but you will go to the kingdom of God.’” (Matt. 16:17-19)
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. 6Confessed, and did not deny that I am not the Christ.

And he was in the bosom of the Father. 7The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, 8full of grace and truth; and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.

This is the one who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ, not by water only, but by water and blood. 9And it is the Spirit who testifies because the Spirit is truth. 10For there are three that testify: 11the Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are one. 12If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his own word.

And the Spirit and the flesh do not agree with each other, for they are in conflict with each other. 13So you cannot do the things you want. 14What you do agree on is that you want to put out of the way the one who is speaking. 15You are sure that you are full of light, yet you are in darkness. 16Now he who is in the light who testifies in the light is sure that his words are true, so that he may be proved right.

And no man has ever seen God; the only One, who is God, who is in the bosom of the Father, has made him known.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2The words became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2The words became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

\[9\] All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

\[10\] In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all through him might believe. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

JOHN 1:4-5

Jesus answered him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. 6If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on the Advocate, the Spirit of truth, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you. 7Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let your faith fail. 8You believe in God; believe also in me. 9In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. 10And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to myself, so that where I am you may be also. 11The Spirit of truth will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak on his own; he will speak what he hears, and he will tell you what is to come. 12He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and make it known to you. 13All that the Father has is mine. 14This is why I said that he will take what is mine and make it known to you. 15If you love me, you will keep my commandments. 16And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you forever— 17the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he is with you and will be in you. 18I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19Through me you will ask me, and I will make the Father known to you. 20Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. Who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will come to him and make my dwelling with him. 21He who loves me loves his Father also. If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. 22He who does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. 23I have told you everything I heard from my Father. 24Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let your faith fail. 25You believe in God; believe also in me. 26In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. 27And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to myself, so that where I am you may be also. 28I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

The Word Became Flesh

1. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2. He was in the beginning with God.
3. All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made.
4. In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

And the Word became flesh among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John bore witness about him, saying, “This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, for he was before me.’”

For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

ESV Pastor’s Bible

A pastor depends on the wisdom of Scripture for all aspects of ministry. What truths can be relied upon in seasons of celebration and in those of sorrow? What does the Bible have to say to us about marriage, sickness, and death? The ESV Pastor’s Bible was designed to help pastors draw wisdom from God’s word for specific situations requiring pastoral care, such as baptisms, weddings, hospital visits, or funerals. In the front matter, back matter, and throughout the text, the ESV Pastor’s Bible contains excerpts from pastors offering practical help for crafting a sermon, planning a special service, leading congregational prayer, conducting premarital counseling, visiting the sick, and resolving conflict within the church. With content from The Pastor’s Book compiled under the guidance of seasoned pastors R. Kent Hughes and Douglas Sean O’Donnell, this substantial but portable edition is a great all-in-one resource for the on-the-ground pastor.
ESV ILLUMINATED™ BIBLE ART JOURNALING EDITION

The ESV Illuminated Bible, Art Journaling Edition places the full ESV text alongside over 500 elegantly hand-lettered gold-ink illustrations by renowned artist Dana Tanamachi. Printed on thick, cream-colored paper, the Bible’s single-column text setting and wide margins provide generous space for additional notes, prayers, and designs—inviting readers to creatively engage with and reflect on the beauty of God’s Word.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

In his own, and his own people he gave no welcome. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. And the true light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

The Gospel According to John

The Wedding at Cana

1 Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or three thousand gallons.  2Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.”  3They filled them up to the brim.  4He said to them, “Now draw out some and lend it to the master of the feast.” So they took it.  5When the master of the feast tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, 6“Everyone who has the first of the wine usually serves it first, and then the later sort after the first has run out. But you have saved the good wine until now.”  7Jesus did this at the wedding in Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

ESV JOURNALING NEW TESTAMENT INDUCTIVE EDITION

The ESV Journaling New Testament, Inductive Edition features extra space for notes in between each line of Bible text, offering a fresh and distinctive way to engage with God’s Word. This single-column Bible is designed to make it easy to interact with every individual verse, making it a great option for pastors, students, and anyone going deep in-depth with Scripture.

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

*John answered them, “I baptize with water, but among you stands one you do not know, who it is, who is at the Father’s side, who has been sent by the Father.* *He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.

What do you say about yourself? He answered, “I am not the Christ.” They asked him, “What then? Are you the Prophet?” He answered, “No.”

*John bore witness: “I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. And I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘You are to baptize with the Holy Spirit, and with fire.’ He then sent me to baptize with water for this reason, that all people might hear the voice of the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.”
The Word Became Flesh

The Bible is not the Word, but the Word became the Bible. 1In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, 2and the Word was in the beginning. 3All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 6He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him.
ESV Scripture Journal® Individual Volumes

Each ESV Scripture Journal pairs the entirety of an individual book of the New Testament with lightly-lined blank pages opposite each page of Bible text, allowing readers to take extended notes or record insights and prayers directly beside corresponding passages of Scripture. These thin, portable notebooks are great for personal Bible reading and reflection, small-group study, writing out extended portions of Scripture, or taking notes through a sermon series.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him.

He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

10

He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him.

11

He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him.

12

But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God,

The Letter of Paul to the Romans

Greeting

Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised before-hand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations, including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ,

To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Longing to Go to Rome

First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world.

For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you always in my prayers, asking that somehow by God’s will I may now at last succeed in coming to you.

For I long to see you, that I may impart to you...
The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to the light, that all might believe through him. He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light. The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own, and his own people did not receive him. John bore witness about him, and cried out, ‘This was he of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me ranks before me, because he was before me.’ ”

For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only Son, who is in the Father’s bosom, he has made him known.

All things were made through him, and without him was not anything made that has been made. In him was life, and life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

The Word Became Flesh

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

In Matthew 5:12, we read:

You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people’s feet.

8 You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. 9 Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. 10 For truly, I say to you, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

The Word Became Flesh

In John 1:14, we read:

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

3 And the world was made through him, and without him was not anything made that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 For to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God,

7 not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

8 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

9 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
ESV JOURNALING BIBLE® INTERLEAVED EDITION

The ESV Journaling Bible, Interleaved Edition is another edition in Crossway’s popular ESV Journaling Bible line. Patterned after the Bible that Jonathan Edwards, the 18th-century preacher and theologian, used to record more than 5,000 notes about God’s Word, this edition includes a full, blank page next to every page of Bible text. Created for Bible readers looking for as much space as possible for sermon notes, personal reflections, prayers, or artwork, this edition features cream-colored paper and a durable binding to ensure that it lasts a lifetime.

ESV JOURNALING PSALTER

Psalm 23

1. The Lord is my shepherd; I lack nothing.
2. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside still waters.
3. He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.
4. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
5. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
6. Surely goodness and mercy, and long life, shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord in the years to come.

ESV PRAYER BIBLE

The ESV Prayer Bible was created to help you reflect on God’s Word through prayer. With 400+ historical prayers linked to key passages throughout the biblical text, this volume demonstrates the connection between the words God has spoken to us in the Bible and the words we speak back to him in prayer. Featuring the prayers of the early Church Fathers, Puritans, Protestant Reformers, and more, along with an introductory essay by Donald S. Whitney (author of Praying the Bible) and prayer-related book introductions, this edition helps readers learn to pray using Scripture as their guide alongside famous Christians throughout history.

Also new help us to pray, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.

1:18-19: Pray for us. Our conscience bears witness to our propriety and our unity with all of you. We are responsible to you for the good news of God, not as men who stuff our bellies, but as servants of God. We tell you the truth. We are not trying to please man. When we speak God’s message, we do not try to please people, but God who tests us as gold is testing us to make us pure.

Psalm 85:5-7: You will answer me, my God; I put my trust in you. I say to God, my rock. He is not like men, who is false and lies, who exhausts the words of his heart.

John 1:1-5: The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through him, and without him was not anything that was made. 4 In him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

1 John 1:2-8: John’s Message

2 And the testimony is this: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 3 We declare to you what we have seen and heard, so that you also may have fellowship with us. And now I beseech you, little children, that you may not sin. I do not ask that you may not sin, but that you may not sin again. 4 For if you do not sin, you have no sin. And he who does not sin in anything does not violate the law. 5 You are of God, little children, and have conquered the evil one. Because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. 6 He who believes in God is safe. He who does not believe God is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. 7 And this is the testimony that God has testified that he has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. 8 The Son is the true witness (ESV)

The Word Became Flesh

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. *

And he answered, “No.” So they said him, “Who are you? We need to give a answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?” He said, “I am of voice of one crying out in the wilderness: ‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’ as of prophet Isaiah said.” Now they had been sent from the Father, full of grace and truth.

The Testimony of John the Baptist

2 Jesus called the first disciples. He found Simon Peter and Andrew, his brother, who were casting a net into the sea. Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you to fish for men.” They immediately left their nets and followed him.

And John bore witness: “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. And I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said, ‘He on whom you shall see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, he it is who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said, ‘On him you shall see the Holy Spirit descend like a dove, and he will speak for you.’ And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent officers from Jerusalem to him.

20 And they asked him, “Then why baptizest thou with water?” He answered them, “I baptize with water, but there shall come one after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie.” And John also said, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him, and I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said, ‘On him you shall see the Holy Spirit descend like a dove, and he will speak for you.’ And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent officers from Jerusalem to him.

37 But he answered and said, “A man cannot receive anything unless it be given him from heaven. And the Father has sent the Son to be judge of the living and the dead. I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that is not of me is of the Devil.” And when he had said these things, he left that place, and came to his own country.

ESV DEVOTIONAL PSAINTER

The Psalms are the only extended portion of Scripture written to God—they are prayers. As such, the Psalms are uniquely suited to foster communion with God, which is the purpose of this ESV edition. The ESV Devotional Psalter pairs each of the 150 psalms with brand-new devotional content written by Dr. Dane Ortlund, guiding readers to thoughtfully interact with and pray through the Scriptures. Its thick, opaque, cream-colored paper is lightly ruled and has wide margins to allow for note taking and written prayers, inviting readers to reflect on the riches of each psalm.

The Way of the Righteous and the Wicked

| PSALM 1

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree planted by streams of water, that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither.

In all that he does, he prospers.

The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

The first psalm serves as the gateway to the entire book of Psalms, stressing that those who would worship God genuinely must embrace his Law (or Torah)—that is, his covenant instruction founded on his redeeming grace. This psalm addresses topics found also in the Bible’s wisdom literature and makes them

ESV PROVERBS: DAILY WISDOM

The book of Proverbs is a unique and treasured part of the Bible, rich with timeless wisdom. It is meant to be read slowly and meditatively, yet most reading plans require a whole chapter of reading at a time. The Testament of John the Baptist

1 And this is the testimony of John. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?” he confessed, and did not deny, “I am not the Christ.” 2 And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not.” 3 Are you the Prophet?” He answered, “No.” 4 He said to them, “Who are you?” They asked him, “We need an answer to it who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

The Birth of Isaac

21 The LORD visited Sarah as he had said and the LORD did to Sarah as he had promised. 2 Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age at the time when God had spoken to him. 3 Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, Isaac. 4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had instructed him. 5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. 6 Sarah said to Abraham, “Your God has made me laugh, and all who hear will laugh with me. 7 Who of all the gods of the peoples have ever produced a son for a maiden? Yet I have fathered a son here after I became old.” 8 So he named his son Isaac. 9 And Abraham said to Isaac, “My son. 10 And Abraham said, “My son, take the startled lamb and offer it up for a burnt offering, as God has instructed you.” 11 And Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Here I am, father, in your hand; do to me what you think fit.” 12 And Abraham said to his son Isaac, “Come near to me and lean on me, that I may know how your heart is, my son.” 13 And Isaac said to his father Abraham, “Here I am, father.” 14 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried fire and a knife. But Isaac asked his father, “Father, where is the fire for the burnt offering?” 15 And Abraham said, “My son, God will provide a lamb for the burnt offering, for the Lord has instructed me.” And so the two of them went on together. 16 And when they came to the place that God had instructed, Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood on the altar, and took the lamb in his hand and offered it up as a burnt offering on the altar. 17 And the angel of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.” 18 He said, “Do not reach to take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, 19 and offer him up as a burnt offering on the altar. 20 For now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.” 21 And Abraham looked and saw the ram on the top of the hill; so he took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son. 22 And Abraham called the name of the place, “The Lord is my shepherd; I will never lack anything.” 23 So it was that on that day the Lord swore about himself, “Because you have done this, not withholding your son, your only son, 24 I will bless you and will multiply your offspring and will give to your offspring all these lands, as I promised Abraham, so your descendants shall be called.” 25 And God said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. 26 And I will bless her, and there will be many nations through her, and kings will come out of her.” 27 Then Abraham bowed down toward the ground, a loud voice said to him, 28 “I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. I have given this land to your descendants forever, for I have been with you and will continue to be with you and to multiply you.” 29 Then Abraham fell face down and prostrated himself and bowed down with his face to the ground. 30 And Abraham said, “Here I am, a stranger and a sojourner with you, and I will spend all my days on the earth, 31 but you give me this land. Do not turn me about and drive me out of your sight. 32 Do not drive me out of your sight, while I live, even as a foreigner and as a stranger. Give me this land of which you have said. 33 Every person who comes near to me and says to my servant Sarah, ‘Give me some water to drink,’ 34 shall indeed give me water to drink, and I will give him bread and cloth. 35 And do not harm me, as I have not harmed you, and as I have shown you kindness, 36 giving you bread and water, and even when you said to me, ‘Turn back and stay with me’” (Genesis 21:22-34).

ESV READER’S BIBLE

Verse numbers, section headings, and translation footnotes are helpful navigational and interpretive tools, but they are also relatively recent conventions. In the ESV Reader’s Bible, they have been removed from the Bible text, and the result is a new kind of Bible-reading experience in a volume that presents Scripture as one extended storyline. On the top of each page, a verse range is included for orientation. Other features include a single-column text setting, readable type, and a book-like format. The ESV Reader’s Bible is a simple but elegant edition, and is perfect for devotional or extended Bible reading that focuses on the overarching narrative of God’s word.

ESV GOSPELS, READER’S SET

The 4 Gospels—Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—offer firsthand accounts of Christ’s ministry on earth. The ESV Gospels, Reader’s Set presents each Gospel in its own stand-alone volume packaged all together in an elegant slipcase. Printed on book paper with Smyth-sewn bindings, this set features single-column text that is free of all verse numbers, chapter numbers, footnotes, and most section headings, resulting in a novel-like reading experience—helping readers immerse themselves in the life and ministry of Jesus.

ESV GOSPEL OF JOHN READER’S EDITION

The book of John provides an up-close look at the life and ministry of Jesus. The ESV Gospel of John, Reader’s Edition captures this firsthand historical record in a stand-alone volume. Formatted like a novel without chapter and verse numbers, with a helpful introduction and reading plans, this edition invites readers into an immersive reading experience, and, at a portable trim size, makes an ideal gift or outreach tool.

ESV READER’S LETTERS OF PAUL

The ESV Reader’s Letters of Paul was produced in celebration of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation—a period of time in which the Reformers rediscovered the vital theological truths within Paul’s epistles that have shaped Christian theology ever since. The text of Paul’s thirteen letters is presented without verse and chapter numbers in a clean, single-column format to encourage extended reading.

THE GREEK NEW TESTAMENT PRODUCED AT TYNDALE HOUSE CAMBRIDGE

The Greek New Testament is priceless in its value as it is how God has given us his revelation of the gospel and of Jesus Christ. While a few trusted Greek texts are in print, significant advances have been made in Greek translation studies of the New Testament since a standard text was adopted by academics in 1975. The Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge has been created under the oversight of editors Dr. Dirk Jongkind (St. Edmund's College, University of Cambridge) and Dr. Peter Williams (Tyndale House, Cambridge). Together with their team, they have taken a rigorously philological approach to re-evaluating the standard text—examining spelling and paragraph decisions as well as allowing more recent discoveries related to scribal habits to inform editorial decisions. Ideal for students, scholars, and pastors alike, The Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge is a groundbreaking contribution to biblical scholarship.

This reader’s edition of the Greek New Testament text combines the Greek New Testament, Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge with a running list of glosses of every word that occurs 25 times or less in the Greek New Testament. Those with limited knowledge of Greek can smoothly read the Greek text without needing to constantly refer to other reference resources—accelerating their facility with the Greek text and making their time more rewarding and more enjoyable as they read the very Word of God.

GREEK SCRIPTURE JOURNAL

Greek Scripture Journal: New Testament Set contains the text of the Greek New Testament. Produced at Tyndale House, Cambridge with added space for notes in the margins and between each line, offering a unique way to interact with the New Testament in its original language. This 19-volume set features thin, portable notebooks each containing one or more books of the New Testament and is great for college or seminary students learning Greek, pastors preparing for sermons, or anyone interested in taking notes alongside passages in the original Greek.

ESV GERMAN/ENGLISH PARALLEL BIBLE

German and English are two of the most spoken languages in the world. Released on the 500th anniversary of the Reformation, the ESV German/English Parallel Bible was produced in partnership with the German Bible Society, and is ideal for native speakers, bilingual readers, and those who are learning either language. The Luther 2017 German text—recently revised by a team of 70 experts and biblical scholars—is positioned on the left side of each page alongside the ESV text on the right. The edition is presented in a durable, hardcover format and includes textual notes for both translations in the back.
