LEAD

12 Gospel Principles for Leadership in the Church

The church has a leadership crisis. For every celebrity pastor exiting in the spotlight, there are hundreds of lesser-known pastors leaving in the shadows. Why are so many pastors leaving the ministry? Best-selling author Paul David Tripp suggests that lurking behind the failure of a pastor is a weak leadership community. Turning to Scripture for guidance, Tripp presents readers with 12 leadership-community principles necessary for a gospel-centered leadership model.

Here is a book with a message for those new to ministry as well as the experienced—God’s abiding presence is your hope in leadership.

DISTINCTIVES

• Presents a church-leadership model that is informed by the gospel of Jesus Christ
• Highlights 12 principles for leadership: achievement, gospel, limits, balance, character, war, servants, candor, identity, restoration, longevity, and presence
• Written by best-selling author Paul David Tripp
• Serves as a follow-up volume to Dangerous Calling: Confronting the Unique Challenges of Pastoral Ministry

AUDIENCE

Pastors; elders and deacons; church staff; seminary students

PAUL DAVID TRIPP (DMin, Westminster Theological Seminary) is a pastor, author, and international conference speaker. He is also the president of Paul Tripp Ministries. He has written a number of popular books on Christian living, including What Did You Expect?, Suffering, Parenting, and New Morning Mercies. He lives in Philadelphia with his wife, Luella, and they have four grown children.
The most important—and the most difficult—disciple a parent will make is within their own home. Matt Chandler and Adam Griffin help families develop a sustainable rhythm of gospel-centered discipleship through a guided framework focusing on moments of discipleship in 3 key areas: time, moments, and milestones. Each section provides parents with Scriptures to consider, questions to answer, structures to implement, and ideas to try out. Here is a book that begins with the end in mind, offering ideas and examples of what gospel-centered family discipleship looks like, helping parents design their own discipleship plan as they seek to raise children in the love and fear of the Lord.

DISTINCTIVES
• Helpful tool for parents as they seek to raise their children in the faith
• Provides encouragement for anyone struggling to see the fruit of family discipleship
• Encourages parents to develop their own methods and philosophy of family discipleship
• Focuses on building discipleship structured around 3 pillars: time, moments, and milestones

AUDIENCE
Parents of children ages 5–13; families; teachers; pastors

MATT CHANDLER (BA, Hardin-Simmons University) serves as lead pastor of teaching at the Village Church in Dallas, Texas, and president of the Acts 29 Network. He lives in Texas with his wife, Lauren, and their three children.

ADAM GRIFFIN (DEdMin, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) is the lead pastor of Eastside Community Church in East Dallas, Texas. He previously served as an elder and spiritual formation pastor at the Village Church. Adam lives with his wife, Chelsea, and their three sons Oscar, Gus, and Theodore, in Dallas, Texas.

WEEP WITH ME
How Lament Opens a Door for Racial Reconciliation
(Foreword by Thabiti Anyabwile)

Today, racial wounds from three hundred years of slavery and a history of Jim Crow laws continue to impact the church in America. Martin Luther King Jr. captured this reality when he said, “The most segregated hour of Christian America is eleven o’clock on Sunday.” Equipped with the gospel, the evangelical church should be the catalyst for reconciliation, yet it continues to cultivate immense pain and division. Weep with Me is a timely resource that presents lament as a bridge to racial reconciliation in the world today. In the Bible, lament is a prayer that leads to trust, which can be a starting point for the church to “weep with those who weep” (Rom. 12:15). As Vroegop writes: “Reconciliation in the church starts with tears and ends in trust.”

DISTINCTIVES
• Examines the practical power of biblical lament to function as a bridge to racial reconciliation
• Provides tangible examples of racial reconciliation and lament from culture, history, and the author’s church
• Identifies applications for lament in contemporary culture
• Illustrates lament by including lament prayers from Christian leaders such as Thabiti Anyabwile, Trilla Newbell, Collin Hansen, Jason Meyer, Danny Akin, Garrett Kell, Mika Edmondson, Jarvis Williams, Issac Adams, and John Onwuchekwa
• Foreword by Thabiti Anyabwile, author of Reviving the Black Church

AUDIENCE
Christians seeking to begin racial reconciliation; pastors and ministry leaders; communities attempting to address ethnic harmony in a redemptive way; church planters

MARK VROEGOP

WHY AM I FEELING LIKE THIS?
A Teen’s Guide to Freedom from Anxiety and Depression

If you are a teenager who has experienced anxiety or depression, at some point you may have asked Why am I feeling like this? You are not alone. With this question in mind, counselor David Murray presents the personal stories of 18 teens who have struggled with anxiety or depression and the freedom they experienced through practical steps and tools. This book will not only explain common causes of anxiety but it will also equip you with the keys to unlock the chains of anxiety or depression. By utilizing these God-given truths and tactics, prepare to experience new liberty, peace, and joy in your life through the freeing gospel of Jesus Christ.

A companion volume to Murray’s Why Is My Teenager Feeling Like This?, written for parents.

WHY IS MY TEENAGER FEELING LIKE THIS?
A Guide for Helping Teens through Anxiety and Depression

Many parents of teenagers know the feeling: instead of the confident, happy, hopeful young adult they hoped to raise, they see an anxious, depressed, scared teen. What can they do to help? Adults play a vital role in guiding teenagers through anxiety and depression, and this book by pastor and counselor David Murray gives spiritual encouragement and practical direction for parents and other adults who want to help but don’t know what to do. A companion volume to Murray’s Why Am I Feeling Like This?, written for teenagers.

DAVID MURRAY (PhD, Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam) is professor of Old Testament and practical theology at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary. He is also a counselor, a regular speaker at conferences, and the author of Reset. David and his wife, Shona, attend Grand Rapids Free Reformed Church.
Modern culture is obsessed with identity. Since the landmark Obergefell v. Hodges Supreme Court decision in 2015, sexual identity has dominated both public discourse and cultural trends—and yet, no historical phenomenon is its own cause. From Augustine to Marx, various views and perspectives have contributed to the modern understanding of self. In The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self, Carl Trueman carefully analyzes the roots and development of the sexual revolution as a symptom, rather than the cause, of the human search for identity. This timely exploration of the history of thought behind the sexual revolution teaches readers about the past, brings clarity to the present, and gives guidance for the future as Christians navigate the culture’s ever-changing search for identity.

DISTINCTIVES
• Speaks to hot-button issues like transgenderism and homosexuality
• Traces the history of self from Jean-Jacques Rousseau to Peter Singer
• Draws insights from Philip Rieff, Charles Taylor, and Alastair MacIntyre
• Helps readers understand the sexual revolution and its effects
• Foreword by Rod Dreher, author of The Benedict Option

AUDIENCE
Christians desiring to understand the cultural search for identity and its link to sexuality; pastors and church leaders; seminary students and historians; biblical counselors

In the second volume of the Reformed Systematic Theology series, Joel R. Beeke and Paul M. Smalley focus on the doctrine of humanity (anthropology) and the doctrine of Christ (Christology). This extensive Reformed theology explores the Bible’s teaching about who we are and why we were created, as well as who Jesus is and why his divinity is essential to the Christian faith.

DISTINCTIVES
• Bible-based, God-centered exposition of the Christian doctrine of creation
• Solid defense of the 6-day creation view of Genesis 1 and the historical reality of Adam
• Systematic analysis of the effect of sin on humanity
• A rich and expansive view of Christ’s work as Prophet, Priest, and King, applied to the heart and practical living
• Combines robust systematic theology with pastoral insight and application

AUDIENCE
Those who are interested in Reformed systematic theology; teachers and students of theology; pastors who desire to grow their knowledge, wisdom, and effectiveness; laypeople

JOEL R. BEEKE (PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary) has written or coauthored one hundred books, and edited another one hundred titles. He is president and professor of systematic theology and homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, a pastor of the Heritage Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids, Michigan, as well as the editor of Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth, the editorial director of Reformation Heritage Books, the president of Inheritance Publishers, and vice president of the Dutch Reformed Translation Society.

PAUL M. SMALLEY (ThM, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary) is faculty teaching assistant to Joel Beeke at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary. He previously served for twelve years as a pastor in the Baptist General Conference in the midwestern United States.
The Flourish Bible Study series is designed to equip women—from baby believers to seasoned saints—to study God’s word. ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JONATHAN EDWARDS (1703–1758) was a pastor, theologian, and missionary. He is generally considered the greatest American theologian. A prolific writer, Edwards is known for his many sermons, including “Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God,” and his classic Treatise Concerning Religious Affections. Edwards was appointed president of the College of New Jersey (later renamed Princeton University) shortly before his death.

CHARLES H. SPURGEON (1834–1892) was an English Baptist pastor at New Park Street Chapel, London (which later became the Metropolitan Tabernacle), for thirty-eight years. As the nineteenth century’s most prolific preacher and writer, his ministry legacy continues today.

THOMAS CHALMERS (1780–1847) was a Scottish preacher, theologian, and author who served as professor of theology at the University of St. Andrews and the University of Edinburgh. His many writings were primarily concerned with the application of Christian ethics to the social issues of his day.
JOE RIGNEY

STRANGELY BRIGHT

Can You Love God and Enjoy This World?

At the heart of the Christian life lies the tension of the single-minded pursuit of the glory of God and the deep enjoyment of the things that God has made. How can Christians enjoy the good things of earth? Whether it’s a delicious meal or a game night with friends, listening to jazz or watching baseball, earthly joys often seem to compete with a deep love for God. Scripture supports both the enjoyment of the Creator and the enjoyment of the creation, revealing that this tension in the Christian life is also found in the Bible. In this accessible book, Joe Rigney displays how Christians can delight in God and enjoy his good gifts.

DISTINCTIVES

- Shares with readers how to enjoy God’s gifts
- Presentation of the Bible’s teaching on earthly enjoyment
- Principles distilled into 7 easy-to-follow chapters
- Written by Joe Rigney, the author of The Things of Earth: Treasuring God by Enjoying His Gifts

AUDIENCE

THE TRINITY

An Introduction

The Trinity is one of the most essential doctrines of the Christian faith, as it reveals a magnificent truth about God—that he is one God eternally existing as three distinct persons. While Christians often struggle to find the right words to describe the union of Father, Son, and Spirit, the Bible gives clarity concerning the triune God’s activity in nature (creation), grace (redemption), and glory (reward). In the second installment of the Short Studies in Systematic Theology series, theologian Scott Swain examines the Trinity, presenting its biblical foundations, systematic-theological structure, and practical relevance for the church today.

DISTINCTIVES

- Volume 2 in the Short Studies in Systematic Theology series
- Explores the biblical roots of essential church doctrines
- Helpful introduction to the doctrine of the Trinity

AUDIENCE

Pastors and church leaders; seminary and Bible college students; readers interested in theology

SCOTT R. SWAIN (PhD, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School) serves as president and James Woodrow Hassell Professor of Systematic Theology at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida.
A compass is a useful tool for reaching a destination—without one, it is easy to get lost. When studying theology it is easy to become lost in the complex terms and doctrines; its varying perspectives and thousands of years of material require a compass to navigate. Concise Theology by J. I. Packer is just that for students of theology, as it distills foundational theological concepts into 4 easy categories, inviting readers to learn about God as Creator, Redeemer, giver of grace, and Lord of destiny. This important resource walks readers through the pillars of the Christian faith and helps them grow in understanding of the unchanging truth about God as presented in the Scriptures.

COVENANT THEOLOGY

Biblical, Theological, and Historical Perspectives
(Foreword by Ligon Duncan)

A host of 26 scholars shows how covenant is not only clearly taught from Scripture, but also that it lays the foundation for other key doctrines of salvation. The contributors, who engage variously in biblical, systematic, and historical theology, present covenant theology not as a theological abstract imposed on the Bible but as a doctrine that is organically presented throughout the biblical narrative.

DISTINCTIVES
- Provides an accessible, comprehensive introduction to covenant for preachers and Bible teachers
- Written from a Reformed, covenantal, and redemptive-historical perspective
- Benefits from the contributions of 26 respected scholars, including O. Palmer Robertson, Michael Kruger, Miles Van Pelt, Scott Swain, and Michael Allen.
- Foreword by Ligon Duncan, afterword by Kevin DeYoung

ANDREW DAVID NASELLI
THE SERPENT AND THE SERPENT SLAYER

Although a story with a serpent, a damsel in distress, and a serpent slayer may sound like just another fairy tale, it is, in fact, part of the greatest true story ever told—the Bible. Epic tales resonate with readers because they echo the greatest story. In this new addition to the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series, Andrew David Naselli traces the theme of snakes and dragons from the serpent in the garden to the devouring dragon in Revelation, culminating with the return of the King. New and seasoned Christians alike will experience afresh the captivating unifying narrative behind all stories as they embark on a journey through the Bible with a trusted biblical scholar.

DISTINCTIVES
• Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series
• Traces the theme of redemption through the Bible
• Concise primer for those interested in biblical theology
• Interacts with 6 popular “dragon” stories: Saint George and the Dragon, Beowulf, The Pilgrim’s Progress, The Chronicles of Narnia, The Lord of the Rings, and Harry Potter

WILLIAM R. OSBORNE
DIVINE BLESSING AND THE FULLNESS OF LIFE IN THE PRESENCE OF GOD

The concept of blessing pervades the everyday life of Christians—from testimonies recounting God’s provision, to praise songs, to wishing someone well. In fact, the term has been so integrated into Christian language that it is rarely considered thoughtfully. In the pages of Scripture, blessing seems to be either physical or spiritual, but a fuller biblical-theological approach reveals that God’s blessing has always been both physical and spiritual.

DISTINCTIVES
• Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series
• Traces the theme of blessing through both the Old and New Testaments
• Corrective to misconceptions about the Bible’s teaching on blessing

AUDIENCE
Anyone interested in understanding the biblical theme of blessing; students interested in biblical theology; laypeople; pastors; Bible study and Sunday school classes

FRANCIS A. SCHAEFFER

TRUE SPIRITUALITY

As one of the greatest Christian philosophers of the 20th century, Francis Schaeffer made it his mission to relate Christianity to the surrounding culture’s worldview. To Schaeffer true spirituality is not a mechanical process like some sort of to-do list, but an active experience—informed by the truth of what God has said in his word. Through the pages of this book, a new generation of readers will uncover what true spirituality is and how to experience it in their own lives—moment-by-moment communion with God himself, grounded upon Christ’s finished work on the cross.

DISTINCTIVES
• Written by renowned Christian philosopher Francis Schaeffer
• A philosophical and biblical analysis of true spirituality
• Practical assessment of personal spirituality and the daily implications of Christ’s finished work on the cross

AUDIENCE
Christians interested in philosophy and apologetics; anyone looking for biblical teaching on spirituality; Sunday school or small group study; pastors and teachers

FRANCIS A. SCHAEFFER (1912-1984) authored more than twenty books, which have been translated into a score of languages and have sold millions worldwide. He and his wife, Edith, founded L’Abri Fellowship international study and discipleship centers. Recognized internationally for his work in Christianity and culture, Schaeffer passed away in 1984 but his influence and legacy continue worldwide.

HE IS THERE AND HE IS NOT SILENT

As perhaps one of the greatest Christian philosophers of the 20th century, Francis Schaeffer made it his mission to relate Christianity to the surrounding culture’s worldview. His works continue to have relevance as Christians grapple with issues in metaphysics (How do we know we exist?), morals (How do we know right from wrong?), and epistemology (How do we know what we know?). Schaeffer invites readers into a deeper understanding of who they are, who God is, and how they know what they know, as they encounter the infinite personal God who is there and is not silent.

DISTINCTIVES
• Philosophical assessment of the Christian view on metaphysics, morals, and epistemology
• For anyone struggling to understand who God is and why he matters
• Provides a Christian philosophical defense against post-modern philosophy
• Written by renowned Christian philosopher Francis Schaeffer
• Features 2 essays in the appendices on revelation and faith

AUDIENCE
Anyone interested in philosophy; pastors or church leaders; seminary students; apologetics classes; Sunday school or small-group study

FRANCIS A. SCHAEFFER (1912-1984) authored more than twenty books, which have been translated into a score of languages and have sold millions worldwide. The human brain is incredibly complex. Christian and secular scholars alike affirm this fact, yet the traditional view of humans as spiritual beings made in the image of God has come under increased pressure from humanistic and materialistic thinkers who deny that humans are anything more than their physical bodies. Christians have long affirmed that humans are spiritual beings made by God to know and fellowship with him, while the humanist position views humans as merely evolved animals.

Bradley Sickler provides a timely theological, scientific, and philosophical assessment of the human brain, highlighting the many ways in which the gospel informs the Christian understanding of cognitive science. Here is a book that provides a much-needed summary of the Bible’s teaching as it sheds light on the brain, with careful interaction with the claims of modern science, arguing that the Christian worldview offers the most compelling vision of the true nature of humanity.

DISTINCTIVES
• Argues for a distinctly Christian vision of the human person consisting of body, soul, and mind
• Explores the relationship between faith and science
• Interacts with contemporary developments in cognitive science
• Engages how the gospel informs cognitive science
• Provides a theological, scientific, and philosophical assessment of the Bible’s teaching on the brain

AUDIENCE
Those interested in cognitive science from a Christian perspective; scientists; medical students; professors and teachers; pastors
CONRAD MBEWE
GOD’S DESIGN FOR THE CHURCH
A Guide for African Pastors and Ministry Leaders
[Foreword by Glenn Lyons]
The church in Africa is growing rapidly, but its growth has come at the expense of depth and maturity. Because of this, there is a dire need for a biblical understanding of what the church should be. Drawing from over 30 years of pastoral experience in Lusaka, Zambia, Conrad Mbewe details what a biblical church looks like in a way that is relatable to African contexts, by focusing on relevant topics such as family and tribal ties, the influence of African traditional religion, and more. Mbewe uses African illustrations to bring home vital truths touching on some of the most pressing issues facing the church in Africa.

DISTINCTIVES
• Written by an experienced pastor of over 30 years
• Addresses the biblical church, focusing specifically in Africa
• Written in partnership with 9Marks and the Gospel Coalition
• Deals with issues plaguing the church in Africa such as family and tribal ties, the influence of African traditional religion, and misconceptions about the church
• Applicable to African diaspora churches throughout the world
• Foreword by Bishop Glenn Lyons

AUDIENCE
Pastors and church leaders in Africa; missionaries; Christians seeking to know what the Bible teaches about the biblical church in an African context

CRAWFORD GRIBBEN
AN INTRODUCTION TO JOHN OWEN
A Christian Vision for Every Stage of Life
Over 3 centuries since his death, John Owen, the most important English Puritan theologian, continues to influence his readers. In his 8 million published words, he addressed a wide range of topics, from theological polemic and biblical commentary to social and political issues such as the proper nurture and education of children. In An Introduction to John Owen, Crawford Gribben offers a survey of these works, showing what Owen considered to be part of the spiritual life he imagined for his readers. For Owen, spiritual life was about increasing in grace and goodness, in fellowship with each member of the Trinity. This introduction to Owen’s works shows how he developed a Christian vision for every stage of life.

DISTINCTIVES
• Includes a time line of the life of John Owen
• Distills the theology of John Owen so readers can apply his desire for the Christian life to their own lives
• Three maps at the beginning of the book illustrating significant locations in the life of John Owen
• Four concise chapters

AUDIENCE
Anyone interested in the theology of John Owen; students of church history, specifically the Puritans; pastors and teachers; interested laypersons

IS JESUS TRULY GOD?
How the Bible Teaches the Divinity of Christ

The question of Jesus’s divinity has been at the epicenter of theological discussion since the early church. At the Council of Nicea in AD 325, the church fathers affirmed that Jesus the Son of God is “true God from true God.” Today, creeds such as this are professed in churches across the world, and yet there remains confusion as to who Jesus is. To some, Jesus is a radical prophet—nothing more than a footnote in history. To others, Jesus is the only Son of God, fully God and fully man—the author of history entering history. Lanier shows from both the Old and New Testaments why the latter view is the truly biblical one.

DISTINCTIVES
• Uncovers the deep biblical roots of the ecumenical creeds on the divinity of Christ
• Demystifies the complex doctrine of Christology
• Presents 6 key ways Scripture reveals the full divinity of Jesus
• Accessible to a range of audiences

AUDIENCE
Seminary and college students; professors; pastors and church leaders; laypeople interested in Christology

GREGORY R. LANIER
(PhD, University of Cambridge) is associate professor of New Testament at Reformed Theological Seminary in Orlando, Florida. He also serves as associate pastor of River Oaks Church (PCA). He currently resides in Orlando with his wife, Kate, and their three daughters.

MARK R. TALBOT
WHEN THE STARS DISAPPEAR
Help and Hope from Stories of Suffering in Scripture

Since the fall of creation, suffering has been a part of life on earth. Heartache, loneliness, depression, and death serve as constant reminders of this somber reality. Even Christians, who know the glory of the life to come, face great suffering—sometimes so deep and disruptive that it dominates their consciousness and threatens to overwhelm. In When the Stars Disappear, author Mark Talbot encourages readers to be instructed by the diverse stories of biblical figures who, when faced with profound suffering, placed their hope in the steadfast presence of God through affliction.

DISTINCTIVES
• Encourages those struggling with affliction to find meaning in their suffering
• Looks at biblical accounts of suffering from figures such as Naomi, Job, Jeremiah, and David
• Integrates philosophical, psychological, and theological perspectives on suffering in the Christian life

AUDIENCE
Anyone dealing with suffering; students; pastors and teachers; Christians looking for meaning in their suffering

MARK R. TALBOT
(PhD, University of Pennsylvania) is associate professor of philosophy at Wheaton College. His areas of expertise include philosophy, psychology, David Hume, Augustine, and Jonathan Edwards. He and his wife, Cindy, have one daughter and three grandchildren. Mark attends Christ Presbyterian Church in Roselle, Illinois.

REFORMED SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY
Joel R. Beeke and Paul M. Smalley

The aim of systematic theology is to engage not only the head, but also the heart and hands. Only recently has the church compartmentalized these aspects of life—separating the academic discipline of theology from the spiritual disciplines of faith and obedience. This new series brings together rigorous, historical, theological scholarship with spiritual disciplines and practicality—characterized by its simple, accessible, comprehensive, Reformed, experiential approach. Based on decades of studying the Puritans and teaching systematic theology, Joel R. Beeke and Paul M. Smalley explore 8 central themes of theology: revelation, God, man, Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, church, and last things.

AUDIENCE
• Pastors and church leaders
• Seminary students
• Educated laypeople

FORMAT
• Hardcover (jacket)
• 6" x 9"

SERIES DISTINCTIVES
• Multivolume work that will cover the entire scope of systematic theology based on 8 central themes: revelation, God, man, Christ, the Holy Spirit, salvation, the church, and last things
• Draws extensively from historic Reformed and Puritan sources
• Written in a modern and broadly accessible style

ABOUT THE AUTHORS
JOEL R. BEEKE (PhD, Westminster Theological Seminary) has written, coauthored, or edited one hundred books. He is president and professor of systematic theology and homiletics at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, a pastor of the Heritage Netherlands Reformed Congregation in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and the editor of Banner of Sovereign Grace Truth.

PAUL M. SMALLEY (ThM, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary) is faculty teaching assistant to Joel Beeke at Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary. He serves as a bivocational pastor at Grace Immanuel Reformed Baptist Church of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and previously served for twelve years as a pastor in the Baptist General Conference in the midwestern United States.

Church Questions is a series that seeks to provide ordinary Christians with sound and accessible biblical teaching by answering common questions they have about church life. Each volume offers biblical answers and practical applications with the goal of nurturing healthy church practice and commitment.

SERIES DISTINCTIVES
• Provides short, accessible resources for pastors to help church members think more biblically about the Christian life in a local congregation
• Addresses a number of practical subjects related to church life, polity, and Christian discipleship in the context of the local church
• Includes both biblical information about each topic and practical applications for churches and Christians

ABOUT THE EDITOR
SAM EMADI (PhD, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary) serves as senior editor at 9Marks, where he writes, edits, and manages special publishing projects. He previously served as a pastoral intern at Capitol Hill Baptist Church in Washington, DC.

ABOUT THE EDITORS

MARK DEVER (PhD, Cambridge University) is the senior pastor of Capitol Hill Baptist Church in Washington, DC, and president of 9Marks (9Marks.org). Dever has authored over a dozen books and speaks at conferences nationwide.

JONATHAN LEEMAN (PhD, University of Wales) is the editorial director for 9Marks. He has written for a number of publications and is the author or editor of several books. He is also an occasional lecturer at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and adjunct professor at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Jonathan lives with his wife and four daughters in a suburb of Washington, DC, and is an elder at Cheverly Baptist Church.

ENDORSEMENTS FOR SERIES VOLUMES

“The practical, convicting, biblically faithful Church Membership is punchy and provocative, but at the same time it is permeated with the gospel of grace.”
THOMAS R. SCHRINER, James Buchanan Harrison Professor of New Testament, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

“Evangelism is rich in practical implications, not despite its incessant focus on Jesus and the gospel, but precisely because of such focus. It deserves to be read, pondered, and implemented.”
D. A. CARSON, Emeritus Professor of New Testament, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School; Cofounder, The Gospel Coalition

PREACHING THE WORD®
Editor: R. Kent Hughes

This commentary series was written by pastors for pastors and their churches. With R. Kent Hughes, former professor of practical theology at Westminster Theological Seminary, as the general editor, these volumes feature experienced pastors and teachers who model expository preaching and practical application. This series is noted for its steadfast commitment to biblical authority, clear exposition of Scripture, and readability—making it widely accessible for both new and seasoned pastors, as well as for men and women who are eager to read the Bible in a fresh way.

ENDORSEMENTS FOR THE SERIES

"Throughout the Christian centuries, working pastors have been proving themselves to be the best of all Bible expositors. Kent Hughes stands in this great tradition, and his exciting expositions uphold it worthy."

J. I. PACKER, Board of Governors’ Professor of Theology, Regent College

"There is a long history of informed, edifying Biblical expositions that have been mightily used of God to shape and strengthen the church. These volumes admirably fit this tradition."

D. A. CARSON, Emeritus Professor of New Testament, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

"It is a pleasure to commend this series of homiletical commentaries. They fill an enormous vacuum that exists between the practical needs of the pastor/teacher and the critical exegetical depth of most commentaries."

WALTER C. KAISER JR., President Emeritus and Distinguished Professor of Old Testament and Ethics, Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary

"This series resonates with the priorities of the pulpit. No academic aloofness here, but down-to-earth, preacher-to-preacher meat for God’s people."

BRYAN CHAPEL, Senior Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church (PCA), Peoria, Illinois

K N O W I N G T H E B I B L E®

Theological Editor: J. I. Packer | Series Editor: Dane C. Ortlund

This Bible study series is designed to help readers better understand and apply God’s word. These 12-week studies lead participants through books of the Bible, asking reflection questions and making practical applications and connections to the rest of Scripture. With contributions from an array of church leaders, these studies will help Christians cherish the message of God’s grace on every page of the Bible.

“Knowing the Bible brings together a gifted team of Bible teachers to produce a high-quality series of study guides.”

PHILIP GRAHAM RYKEN, President, Wheaton College

“What a gift to earnest, Bible-loving, Bible-searching believers! What potential growth in depth and breadth of understanding these studies offer. One can only pray that vast numbers of believers will discover more of God and the beauty of his Word through these rich studies.”

BRUCE A. WARE, Professor of Christian Theology, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary

“I heartily endorse this orientation of individual books to the whole Bible and the gospel, and I applaud the demonstration that sound theology was not something invented later by Christians, but is right there in the pages of Scripture.”

GRAEME GOLDSWORTHY, Former Lecturer in Old Testament, Biblical Theology, and Hermeneutics, Moore Theological College

“The skilled authors and notable editors provide the contours of each book of the Bible as well as the grand theological themes that bind them together.”

R. KENT HUGHES, Former Professor of Practical Theology, Westminister Theological Seminary

S E R I E S DISTINCTIVES

• Includes reflection questions and space for writing responses
• Highlights whole-Bible themes passage by passage, helping readers see and understand the overarching storyline of the Bible
• Benefits from the scholarly oversight of renowned theologian J. I. Packer
