TO BE A CHRISTIAN
J. I. PACKER
What does it mean to be a Christian? How can we know Jesus Christ and experience the love of God through him? It is possible to know about Jesus without actually knowing Jesus personally in your life. This tract outlines the key points of the gospel and calls readers to respond, so they can receive Jesus Christ as their Savior and Lord, make a conscious commitment to be his followers, and enter into life with Christ. Rather than merely understanding facts about Jesus, readers can know the fullness of joy as a child of God both now and forever.

• Explains how God calls us to himself and invites readers to place their faith in Christ

THE GREATEST CHAPTER IN THE BIBLE
JOHN PIPER
Narrowing in on the promise found in Romans 8:32—“He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things?”—this tract shows how God gave up his own Son to give us everlasting happiness. Nothing can separate us from the love of God, not even his love for his own Son. And this promise is for anyone who receives, by faith, Jesus Christ as their Savior, their treasure, their hope, and their joy.

REMEMBERING GOD’S PROMISES
TIM SAVAGE
In our world there are thousands of weary souls and troubled hearts, people yearning for satisfaction in life but finding mostly disappointment. But it doesn’t have to be that way. Jesus Christ promised life and promised it in abundance. This tract helps readers combat the false messages they hear in the world by pointing them to 9 specific promises of God. By remembering and living by these promises, they can discover the fullness of life in Christ and the satisfaction their hearts are longing for.

DISTINCTIVES

• Helps readers discount false messages in the world by listening to the voice of Jesus
• Offers a prayer for the reader if they want to receive the promises of God for themselves

WHEN GOD TAKES YOUR PLACE
DAVE FURMAN
This tract tells the story of a prisoner on death row who came to believe in Jesus—finding hope that even though she would perish in this life, Jesus took her place on the ultimate death row. The Bible teaches that everyone sits in a spiritual prison, awaiting the day when we will receive the just punishment we deserve. But the good news is that when you repent of your sin and trust in Jesus to save you, Jesus takes your punishment for you. In the greatest exchange in all of history, Jesus gave up his life so you can live.

DISTINCTIVES
• Invites the reader to consider how they have rejected God and deserve punishment
• Examines what the Bible says about Jesus taking our punishment on the cross
• Offers a prayer for the reader to say in response to the message

AUDIENCE

STEPS TO PEACE WITH GOD

One of the all-time Good News Tracts best sellers, this tract has a legacy of presenting the gospel message with clarity. “Steps to Peace with God” presents 4 easy-to-follow stages in order to truly understand the peace of God, and grasp the gift of eternal life that only comes through Jesus Christ. With key Bible verses in cooperation with the author’s message, this lesson points the unbeliever toward the hope that Christ gives—hope for an eternity spent with him.

DISTINCTIVES

THE STORY

The Christian story is about the good news that God so loved the world he gave his only Son that whoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life—but that is not where the story begins. The entire Bible tells the story of God’s steadfast love for his people. This tract tells the whole story of the Bible in 6 points—Creation, Curse, Christ, Cross, Re-Creation, and Commitment—and invites readers to believe and respond to God’s good news.

DISTINCTIVES

• Tells the whole story of the Bible in 6 points: Creation, Curse, Christ, Cross, Re-Creation, and Commitment
• Offers quick summaries and key passages of Scripture for each of the 6 points
• Helps readers see that the good news of the gospel is found throughout the whole Bible

AUDIENCE

• People who know of the Bible but don’t know the whole story
• Individuals hoping to share the gospel through the storyline of the whole Bible
• Sunday school teachers

AMAZING LOVE

Joni Eareckson Tada’s moving account of Christ’s crucifixion brings to mind the realities of our Savior’s suffering as he bore the sins of humanity. But one might ask: how could a loving God forsake his Son on the cross?

Though Christ was forsaken while he endured the weight of our sin, he then was resurrected to glory in eternity with the Father. In this, the greatest gift, God’s “amazing love” was completely poured out for us and moves us to repentance and eternal praise of him.

DISTINCTIVES

• Brings to mind the depth of God’s love for humanity
• Useful at Easter and throughout the calendar year
• Uses key passages from Scripture in combination with the message

AUDIENCE

• Easter church attendees
• Pastors preaching on Christ’s sacrificial death
• New believers learning about repentance and faith
• Small-group leaders
