SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
for With All Your Heart

1. Misconceptions about the heart are commonplace in our culture. You say that phrases like “follow your heart” have “become moral principles etched in cultural granite and are routinely used to excuse [sin].” Can you elaborate on this?

2. What is your definition of the heart?

3. How do the heart and mind interact? Are they opposed to one another?

4. What is the key to discerning whether our hearts’ desires are good or bad?

5. Often the Bible will use other body parts to describe the heart, like our liver or kidneys. What is the significance of this?

6. How can we reorient our hearts to increasingly love what is good and what God approves?

7. What is the difference between our desires and our will?

8. How do we strengthen/discipline our will?

9. Why is it important for Christians to actively work to “keep their hearts”? What are a few ways we can do this?

10. We know that our hearts do not love God as they should. What is our hope as we continue to fight to keep our hearts?
