SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
for When the Stars Disappear

1. What does it mean to suffer profoundly, and how does suffering profoundly affect us?
2. It is not unusual for us to despair when we are suffering profoundly. How can biblical stories like Naomi’s, Job’s, Jeremiah’s, and the psalmists’ encourage us not to give up?
3. What can we learn from the psalms of lament?
4. What do stories like Naomi’s, Job’s, and the Psalms teach us about God’s steadfast love?
5. What does Jeremiah’s life story teach us?
6. What does Hebrews 11 teach us about our roles in the fulfillment of God’s providence?
7. Perhaps the greatest lesson of Scripture regarding our suffering is that we must learn to endure. Why is this perhaps Scripture’s greatest lesson about our suffering?
8. What is your own story of suffering?
9. What would you say to someone who says they don’t think they should suffer because they are a Christian?
10. What is the best way to help a friend who is suffering profoundly?

REVIEW COPIES/INTERVIEWS:
Lauren Susanto
lsusanto@crossway.org
1 (630) 682-4300, ext. 6031