SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
for Lead

1. What do you mean when you say that the church has a leadership crisis?

2. Your previous book Dangerous Calling addressed challenges in pastoral ministry. How is this book different?

3. In what ways should church or ministry leadership look different from traditional business leadership?

4. A shift in values can take place over a period of time with a leadership team. What are some subtle changes that they should be on guard against?

5. Is it wrong for a church to value achievement in ministry?

6. What advice would you give to a church leader who sees troubling patterns and priorities within the larger leadership community?

7. You mention that one role of a leadership community is to “pastor the pastors.” Can you explain that?

8. What does restoration and reconciliation look like in situations of pastoral sin?

9. In your own ministry experience, how has a strong, gospel-centered leadership community helped and challenged you?

REVIEW COPIES/INTERVIEWS:
Lauren Susanto
lsusanto@crossway.org
1 (630) 682-4300, ext. 6031