SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
for Growing Together

1. What’s the difference between a mentoring relationship and a friendship? What does it mean to mentor someone?

2. Why is balanced spiritual growth so important? What does it look like?

3. What are some typical fears people have about mentoring relationships?

4. Why is it important to set clear expectations in a mentoring relationship?

5. You use the image of two trees to describe mentoring relationships. Can you share that description and explain why it’s helpful to keep in mind in discipleship?

6. What would you say to a woman who feels unfit to mentor another woman because of past personal failures?

7. What advice would you give to a younger woman who is looking for a mentor?

8. What examples of mentoring do we see in Scripture, and what can we learn from them?

9. What are some of the topics that you encourage people to talk about as they meet together? Why is it important for women to talk about those things with women who are more mature in their faith?

10. How have mentoring relationships encouraged and challenged your spiritual growth in your own life?

REVIEW COPIES/INTERVIEWS:
Lauren Susanto
lsusanto@crossway.org
1 (630) 682-4300, ext. 6031