SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
for The Whole Counsel of God

1. Why do you think more pastors don’t preach through the whole Bible?

2. Do you think there’s a link between church members not feeling comfortable reading all parts of Scriptures and their pastors not preaching through the whole Bible?

3. Is there a particular Bible passage or passages that illustrates the importance for pastors to preach through the whole counsel of God?

4. What would you say to the pastor who prefers to preach topical sermon series instead of working through entire books of the Bible?

5. What are some consequences of not preaching the whole Bible?

6. What is the danger of preaching “a canon within the canon?”

7. You write that “working towards preaching the whole Bible is not only ideal, but also realistic.” What are some tips for pastors getting started?

8. What is “gospel theology,” and why is it important?

9. You have a chapter in the book about the benefits of pastors planning their preaching schedules years in advance. What benefits are there to this long-range planning?

REVIEW COPIES/INTERVIEWS:
Lauren Harvey
lharvey@crossway.org
1 (630) 682-4300, ext. 6031