CROSSWAY INTRODUCES FIRST BOOK IN LYDIA BROWNBACK’S FLOURISH BIBLE STUDY SERIES FOR WOMEN

WHEATON, Ill.—Crossway is pleased to announce the launch of the Flourish Bible Study series, designed to equip women—from the baby believer to the seasoned saint—to study God’s word. Bible study teacher Lydia Brownback guides women chapter by chapter through various books of the Bible, helping them come away with a deeper understanding of God’s word, its context in redemptive history, and how it uniquely reveals God and his gospel.

“When the cares of daily life dominate every waking moment, time in God’s word can feel like a luxury, something to squeeze in later when there’s more time,” says Brownback. “But nothing is more important than focusing on Jesus, and Scripture is where we find him. So even during life’s busiest seasons, we need God’s word. It’s the means by which the Holy Spirit grows our relationship with the Lord and makes it thrive.”

Each 10-week study features conversational teaching that aims to make in-depth Bible study accessible to women at all stages of life. The Flourish Bible Study series is ideal for individual or group study, with application questions included at the end of each chapter and recommended resources for further study located at the end of each workbook.

The first volume in the series, Esther, is scheduled to release in July 2020. In this first study, Brownback teaches that Esther is far more than just a book about a queen and a scheming villain. Although it is the only book of the Bible absent God’s name, the storyline of Esther draws attention to God’s presence, implicitly pointing to the Lord Jesus Christ.

Downloadable leader’s guides will be available for each book at lydiabrownback.com.
